Breaking the Rules

I have been a participant, an organiser, or associated with the fly fishing competition scene for nearly thirty years.

During that time I have seen some pretty bad behaviour. Not I add, with some pride, in A.M.F.C. events. (I have also seen some wonderfully helpful and kind behaviour)

Mostly in AMFC events it is just a bit of selfishness, like cutting across other anglers drifts to get back to the top of your drift quicker. Or, having the drogue on the wrong side so that you drift differently than all the other boats. I cannot remember an occasion when the A.M.F.C. Rules were seriously broken.

However during the last match on Rutland that I attended it was clear that anglers were regarding one of the Reservoir Rules as advisory rather than mandatory! Sadly it was so bad that the rangers had to come out to remind anglers of their misbehaviour.

As I explained in the September Newsletter on the Groups One and Two Round Five Match on Rutland, the yacht racing effectively pushed the anglers towards the Dam Wall. Lots of boats stole an extra few yards beyond the 50 metre orange buoys to get to the fish. Understandable but not legal!

Since then I have been wrestling with the problem of how responsible the organiser of the match is for policing the reservoir rules, as well as the A.M.F.C. Rules.

The only reservoir specific type of rule anglers fishing in A.M.F.C. events are likely to come in conflict are those associated with exclusion areas.

On this occasion all that was needed was a gentle reminder by the Rangers. As far as I could see everyone took the hint. But if anglers persisted in misbehaving the Rangers have the sanction of removing them from the water.

Clearly the A.M.F.C. organisers do not have these sorts of sanctions and are only left with control through the score sheet.

But this raises so many problems that it would be better NOT to go there. In the end I conclude that we cannot have any responsibility for these rules. Of course organisers should gently help the rangers to police these infringements.

So for all those anglers who commented (complained) at the match on Rutland – sorry but I'm not sure we can do anything.

Autumn Association Match 2010

Fished at BEWL WATER on Saturday 2rd. October

The closest ever!

Apart from Group Three, where Fish Hawks 'B' had guaranteed their promotion before the match, all the other groups were too close to call.

In group one, Rutland Water F.F. overtook Hanningfield F.A. to become Champions by one point.

Rutland Water F.F. are becoming the team to beat. They have been champions twice in the last three years.

It was even closer in Group Two. Queen Mother F.F. and Grafham Water F.F.A. 'A' had an equal number of points. In this case the TOTAL catch throughout the season is calculated.

Q. Mother	Grafham
85lbs 8oz	70lbs 0oz
58lbs 11oz	58lbs 11oz
34lbs 7oz	49lbs 6oz
84lbs 9oz	113lbs 2oz
68lbs 2oz	46lbs 12oz
24lbs 6oz	22lbs 11oz
355lbs 11oz	360lbs 10oz
Grafham got one more fish to earn the point

These totals meant that Grafham Water F.F.A.'A' earned themselves promotion to Group One in 2011.

Going into the last match in Group Four, Tunbridge Wells F.F.S. and England Police had an equal number of points. On the day Tunbridge Wells caught one more fish than England police to earn themselves the one point advantage and will fish in Group Three next season.

If there are no changes in the numbers and names of teams entering the 2011 Challenge Table the Groups should be.

The Weather played its part in this match. There was a gradual deterioration as the day progressed. By the end of the match the rain was almost torrential. With the weigh in on the side of the Lodge, rather than under the canopy at the sailing club house, this was also a soggy affair.

Many – many years ago, when the first ever Benson & Hedges Flyfishing Championship International Final was held at Bewl, Chris Ogbourne the Captain of the successful Bristol Team told his anglers not to spend time over difficult Bewl fish.

He had discovered that there were times when the Bewl fish would simply 'play' with the fly.

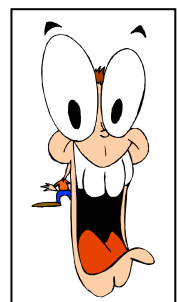

They would suck at it, nudge it, even knock it with their tail, but almost never take it and be hooked.

I gather that this was the case during the Autumn Match. One report said: 'Although there were lots of fish showing at various times, they proved very difficult to catch and many got very frustrated trying'.

In the end only two Bewl regulars, who probably know more than anyone else about catching in these conditions, Simon Newman and Micky Dwyer were the only two anglers to catch a limit. Mick finished at 3.0 pm and Simon an hour before the end.

With so many fish showing on the surface dries and small nymphs did well. With the dries a small movement away from the first rise was the most successful way to get the fish to grab. But it was not guaranteed.

That's another season over folks!!!!

Fun Day Sunday 10th. October at Pitsford

The day began overcast with a gentle breeze and most fish were caught early on. The Narrows seemed to be the favourite spot although a few fish were caught by the tower next to the dam. After an hour the cloud disappeared - there really was not a cloud in the sky! Also the wind strengthened considerably and we all know how tough bright sun and strong wind can be! One or two boats packed up early rather than continue flogging a dead horse to wait for the excellent reception at the Overtone Manor.
